

Irish Pipe Band Association

Data Protection Policy

Purpose of this policy

This policy is a statement of Irish Pipe Band Association's commitment to protect the rights and privacy of individuals and compliance with the Data Protection Acts.

The Data Protection Acts 1988 and 2003 (the "Data Protection Acts") lay down strict rules about the way in which personal data is collected, accessed, used and disclosed. The Data Protection Acts permit individuals to access their personal data on request, and gives individuals the right to have their personal data amended if found to be incorrect.

Inquiries about this Data Protection Policy should be made to Johnny Sheehan , Secretary IPBA.

Collecting information about you

We collect and use information to provide the following purposes:

- To maintain a record of our membership and their contact details.
- To contact our member bands and individuals
- To apply on a member's behalf for Garda Vetting.
- To maintain a record of members who have been Garda Vetted.
- To maintain a record of members who have been refused Garda Vetting.

We will carry out our responsibilities under the Data Protection Acts in accordance with the following eight Data Protection principles:

- 1. Obtain and process information fairly
We will obtain and process your personal data fairly and in accordance with statutory and other legal obligations.
- 2. Keep it only for one or more specified, explicit and lawful purposes
We will keep your personal data for purposes that are specific, lawful and clearly stated to you. Your personal data will only be processed in a manner compatible with these purposes and as outlined to you.
- 3. Use and disclose only in ways compatible with these purposes
We will only disclose personal data that is necessary for the purpose/s or compatible with the purpose/s for which we collect and keep the data as outlined to you.
- 4. Keep it safe and secure
We will take appropriate security measures against unauthorised access to, or alteration, disclosure or destruction of your personal data and against its accidental loss or destruction.
- 5. Keep it accurate, complete and up-to-date
We will adopt procedures that ensure high levels of data accuracy, completeness and that your data is up-to-date.
- 6. Ensure it is adequate, relevant and not excessive
We will only hold your personal data to the extent that it is adequate, relevant and not excessive.
- 7. Retain for no longer than is necessary
We have a retention policy for your personal data.
- 8. Give a copy of his/ her personal data to that individual, on request

We adopt procedures to ensure that data subjects can exercise their rights under the Data Protection legislation to access their data when permitted by law.

Responsibility

Overall responsibility for ensuring compliance with Data Protection Acts rests with the National Executive Committee of the IPBA and in particular the Secretary, Treasurer, Registrar and Designated Liaison Person of the IPBA.

All employees, volunteers and clients of the IPBA who separately collect, control or process the content and use of personal data are individually responsible for compliance with the Data Protection Acts.

The Data Protection Coordinator in the IPBA coordinates the provision of support, assistance, advice, and training throughout the IPBA to ensure we are in a position to comply with the legislation. They will liaise with the Data Protection Commissioner's Office for guidance on specific cases.

Security of data

The IPBA takes seriously its security obligations in respect of your personal data under the Data Protection Acts to prevent unauthorised access to, or alteration or destruction of personal data in our possession.

Right of Access

Where you have provided us with your personal data you have a right to be given a copy of your personal data in accordance with section 4 of the Data Protection Acts subject to certain exceptions. To request a copy of your personal data please read the IPBA's Data Access Request Policy before completing an Access Request Form and sending it to the Secretary or Garda Vetting Officer. Please note the following important requirements:

1. We reserve the right not to process an access request that is not made in our Access Request Form format;
2. We do not accept access requests via telephone, email or text message.

Right of rectification or erasure

If we hold incorrect information about you, which was originally submitted by you, you have the right to have the data amended. To request your right to rectification and/or erasure please send your request to us in writing with:

1. Your name and address.
2. A description of the specific personal data you wish rectified.
3. If you request an erasure of your personal data all your data will be erased subject to the following important notice.

We are not required to rectify or erase your data where to do so would prevent you from meeting your obligations to us or where we are required to process (including retaining) your personal data for a lawful purpose in accordance with the Data Protection Acts.

The IPBA trusts that you appreciate we respect your right to privacy and that our honesty and integrity will mean that you will continue to trust us with your personal data, knowing that we will not use it for any inappropriate purpose

Procedures and Guidelines

This Data Protection Policy is supplemented (and may be amended) by specific policies and procedures adopted by the NEC of the IPBA
